Get on Board with McL&H!

McLaughlin & Harvey's 'Get on Board' health, safety and wellbeing roadshow tour has officially begun.

The bus will be visiting 10 sites across the Scotland and England, beginning with Abbotsinch Retail Park, Paisley and ending at King's College Hospital, London.

On board there will be an occupational health nurse who will perform lifestyle health checks, including blood pressure, diabetes, cholesterol, alcohol and smoking awareness. The team will also be providing information and leaflets around health issues, and facilitate interactive activities.

The bus is part of McLaughlin & Harvey's You Matter campaign, as well as the Scottish Government initiative Healthy Working Lives. McLaughlin & Harvey has been part of Healthy Working Lives since 2008; the company has achieved bronze and silver awards for its participation.

McLaughlin & Harvey is committed to improving the health of its workforce, as people are key to the success of the business.
